BUTTERFLY TRAINING

OSH Training - Bloodborne Pathogens

Occupational Safety and Health Training - Bloodborne Pathogens (BBP)

OSH-BBP-US

Description

Occupational Safety and Health Training - Bloodborne Pathogens (BBP)

The content of this training is based on Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA) requirements for Bloodborne Pathogens (BBP) described in the 29 CFR 1910.1030 (Code of Federal Regulations) and on Aircraft Certification Service Exposure Control Plan found in the IR 3900.74 Appendix A written by the FAA.

Duration: 45minutes

Objectives:
- Understand and know the epidemiology and symptoms of the main bloodborne pathogens.
- Understand the OSHA BBP Standard.
- Understand the purpose of the Exposure Control Plan (ECP) and be able to use an ECP.

Program:
- Bloodborne Pathogens Definitions
- Exposure Control Plan

Target Group: AIR Employees : Aircraft cabin crewmembers

Validity: 1year

Exam conditions

Multiple-Choice Question (MCQ)

Max attempts: 2
Minimum score: 80
Maximum score: 100

Certification

A certificate will be issued at the end of the training course.