
Security Identification Display Area (SIDA) Training

Security Identification Display Area (SIDA) Training \ Security Training

SIDA-US-EN

Description

Security Identification Display Area (SIDA) Training

TSA regulations require to provide Security training to all individuals requiring unescorted access to the SIDA. Airport may not authorize any individual unescorted access to the Secured Area or SIDA, unless that individual has successfully completed Security Training.

Regulation Covered: 49 CFR Part 1542

Duration: 1 Hours.

Program:
- What the Airport Security is?
- Who’s Security Actors and their responsibilities?
- What are the different Areas of an Airport?
- What are the controls measures?
- What are different Airport ID badges?
- What are your responsibilities?
- What are your responsibilities?
    - Proper ID Display
    - Challenge Procedure
    - Report Suspicious Activity
    - Sensitive Security Information (SSI)
    - Insider Threat
    - Piggybacking
- What will be the Penalties if you don't respect your responsibilities?

Target Group:
All employees requiring unescorted access to the SIDA

Exam conditions

Multiple-Choice Question (MCQ)

Max attempts: 2
Minimum score: 80

Maximum score: 100

Certification

A certificate will be issued at the end of the training course.